Fort Sill Apache (Vendor/Contractor) Fiduciary Responsibility Agreement

All vendor employees and contractors hold a position of trust. They make decisions that affect the future of an organization. Large amounts of money can be involved with various appointments or contracts, making it vital for everyone to act and make decisions that do not benefit, support or promote their own agendas, but are made in good faith and with the primary duty being to the tribe and its businesses. The community, tribal leadership, and tribal employees should be confident that vendor employees and contractors will act in good faith and always in accordance with the law.

They should also:

- not take advantage of their position to further their own needs;
- be honest and industrious;
- never misuse information gained through their privileged position
- provide adequate information to authorized persons or members when requested and not mislead them in any way;
- disclose any potential conflict of interest;
- act with care and diligence;
- maintain confidentiality of information that is only made available to the decision makers;
- never knowingly place the organization in a potentially litigious position; and
- ensure all decisions made are to the advantage of the organization or tribe
- ensure they act according to the constitution and ordinance of the Fort Sill Apache Tribe.

The public gaming operations license/ work permit is a revocable privilege, no holder thereof shall be deemed to have an interest in any vested rights therein or thereunder. The burden of proving qualifications to hold any license/ work permit rests with the vendor employee or contractor. The Gaming Commission is charged by law with the duty of continually observing the conduct of all vendor employees or contractors to the end that licenses/ work permits shall not be held by unqualified or disqualified persons or unsuitable person or persons whose operations are conducted in an unsuitable manner.

Acceptance of a license/ work permit or renewal thereof or condition imposed thereon by a vendor employee or contractor constitutes agreement on their part to be bound by all the regulations and/or conditions of the Gaming Commission and by the provisions of the Gaming Ordinance as the same are now or may hereafter be amended or promulgated. It is the responsibility of the licensee to keep themselves informed of the contents of all such regulations, provisions and conditions, and ignorance thereof will not excuse the violations.
